"WHEN ROUND MY COT"

Moderato.

When round my cot be - side the stream The old oaks cast their shade, And life to me seem'd but a dream, Where oft my foot-steps stray'd; And when beside the pear - ly fount, I lisp'd my ev'ning prayer, My thoughts from earth to heav'n would mount, And of its sweetness share, . . . And of its sweetness share.

And oh! how oft did I re - pair To some deep hid - den grove, That I might breathe my soul out there To dim.
